Code of Conduct

Students enrolling in IIIT Bangalore's Executive PG Programme in Software Development assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the culture and values of IIIT Bangalore and UpGrad. All enrolled students are hereby obliged to abide by this code of conduct.

IIIT Bangalore and UpGrad are committed to fostering a learning environment that is conducive for healthy and constructive learning. Each student's conduct in the online and face-to-face interaction must conform to standards inherently necessary to advance the learning process. Verbal or written conduct in personal interactions, postings, images, and videos that is unwelcome, or inappropriate, or that denigrates or shows hostility or disrespect towards IIIT Bangalore or partner organization(s), fellow students or members of the teaching and non-teaching staff from IIIT Bangalore would constitute breach of discipline and would result in disciplinary action. Such actions may include (and not limited to) cancellation of registration in said course and even termination from the program with no reimbursement of fees. Decision of the IIIT Bangalore Academic Committee is final and binding in such cases.

Harassment

Any discriminatory action based upon (but not limited to) case, religion, gender, or physical handicap would also be viewed as harassment and would entail disciplinary action.

Academic Dishonesty

Acts of academic dishonesty include: Copying from another's exam or assignment work or allowing fellow students to copy from one's exams/submissions; unpermitted collaboration; plagiarism; revising and re-submitting a quiz for re-evaluation without the instructor's knowledge; representing as your own work the work of another; giving or receiving aid on an academic assignment under circumstances in which such aid was not permitted; impersonating in online interactions including logging in using an user ID other than your own; inappropriate tampering with online academic systems.

Academic Dishonesty could be the grounds for appropriate action including but not limited to cancellation of registration in said course or even termination of the program with no reimbursement of program fees. Decision of the IIIT Bangalore Academic Committee is final and binding in such cases.

I undertake:

- ✓ That I have understood the code of conduct, policies on anti-harassment and academic honesty.
- ✓ That I shall abide by the rules and regulations of IIIT Bangalore and UpGrad.
- ✓ In the event of me being found guilty of violation of any of the policies stated here, I agree to any penal measures IIIT Bangalore and/or UpGrad may impose, including my withdrawal from the program.

Login and further use of the EPGP SD online learning platform indicates your acceptance of these regulations.
